NAS LEMOORE INSTRUCTION 5500.6C

From: Commanding Officer, Naval Air Station, Lemoore

Subj: POLICY AND PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING JUVENILE DEPENDENTS OF SERVICE PERSONNEL INVOLVED IN VANDALISM OR OTHER ACTS CONTRARY TO GOOD ORDER AND DISCIPLINE

1. Purpose. To publish the policy and procedures of the command in dealing with acts of vandalism, violence, or other acts contrary to good order and discipline committed at NAS Lemoore by juvenile dependents of service personnel.

2. Cancellation. NASLEMINST 5500.6B

3. Background. Undisciplined acts by juvenile dependents have resulted in physical damage to Navy housing and other air station facilities which have caused the unnecessary expenditure of funds to repair and restore the damage. This in turn prevents the improvement and normal repair of projects for which the monetary funds were originally intended, thus denying military occupants of Navy housing and users of recreational facilities the full benefit of funds allocated strictly for their welfare and comfort. A more serious matter is the invasion of privacy and damage to personal property of occupants of Navy housing. This situation has caused needless expense to individuals for repairing their damaged personal property and resulted in uneasiness among the families of Navy personnel.

4. Policy. Occupancy of Navy housing is a privilege which requires on the part of all occupants conformance with accepted standards of deportment and demonstrated ability to live harmoniously within the Navy community. Cases of improper conduct will be brought to the attention of the Commanding Officer, NAS Lemoore, who may direct eviction when such action is warranted. Similarly, misuse of the recreational facilities onboard the air station may result in loss of those privileges.

5. Action

a. All acts of vandalism or misconduct by juveniles are to be reported to the Security Officer by either witnesses to the act or by individuals first noticing the resultant damage.

b. The Security Officer will have each incident investigated to determine if the individuals involved can be identified. An incident report will be filed and a copy sent to the Station Judge Advocate.

c. The Station Judge Advocate will review each incident report and make a recommendation to the Commanding Officer and Executive Officer as to the appropriate action to be taken. Such recommendations may include, but are not limited to:

(1) A letter of warning to the parents informing them of their dependent's involvement in an incident and that subsequent violations could subject the family to eviction from family housing.

(2) A provisional barment letter to the dependent requiring him to perform community service and/or attend counselling with Family Service Center.

(3) A barment order and an eviction letter.

(4) A letter referring the parents and child to the Juvenile Probation Department of Kings County.
